Edited by Kelyn Bacon

This comprehensive work - now in its second edition - is accessible to practitioners who do not specialize in competition law, as well as being a reference book for competition lawyers. It covers the development of EU State aid law, and the concept of State aid, as well as more practical issues such as procedures for notification to the Commission, and judicial remedies in the European Courts. It also sets out the role of national courts in the enforcement of State aid rules, and the remedies that may be granted by those courts.

- Fully comprehensive and practical analysis of the legal aspects of State aid in the EU
- Includes extensive coverage of the various forms of horizontal and sectoral aid
- Addresses the relationship between the EU State aid rules and the State aid rules contained in international agreements involving the EU Member States
- Written in a concise style by recognized experts in the field, this work is accessible to competition lawyers as well as non-specialists
